Service

law-point – your rights put in a nutshell

I provide gladly legal advice to you. I deal in a competent and efficient manner with your legal questions and represent your concerns at court and in front of public authorities. The terms of collaboration are always agreed during the first counselling.

Fields of law

I put your rights in a nutshell in the following, preferred fields of law:

- employment law
- tenancy law
- general contract law
- contract for work and services law and agency law
- criminal law
- road traffic law
- migration law
- enforcement law
- family law (divorce proceedings and proceedings of protection of the marital union)
- inheritance law
